

SwiftSend: Data Analyst Services

Turning Data into Money.

About SwiftSend

SwiftSend is a solo-run, high-impact data service built for brands that want to work smarter. Whether you're a startup, creator, small business, or solo brand, I help you organize, analyze, and act on your data — through custom dashboards, trackers, and tools designed to boost clarity, save time, and drive better decisions.

Services Offered Through Data Analysis

- Organize and clean lead lists (tagging, sorting, status)
- Analyze sales by zip, price range, agent, or quarter
- Visual dashboards (for listings, revenue, closings, etc.)
- CRM clean-up and automation suggestions
- Create investor deal summaries
- Turn your chaos into trackable KPIs

Why Choose SwiftSend?

- Know what's working (and what's not)
- Show off performance to leads or sellers
- Stay ahead of the market
- Save hours per week of manual work
